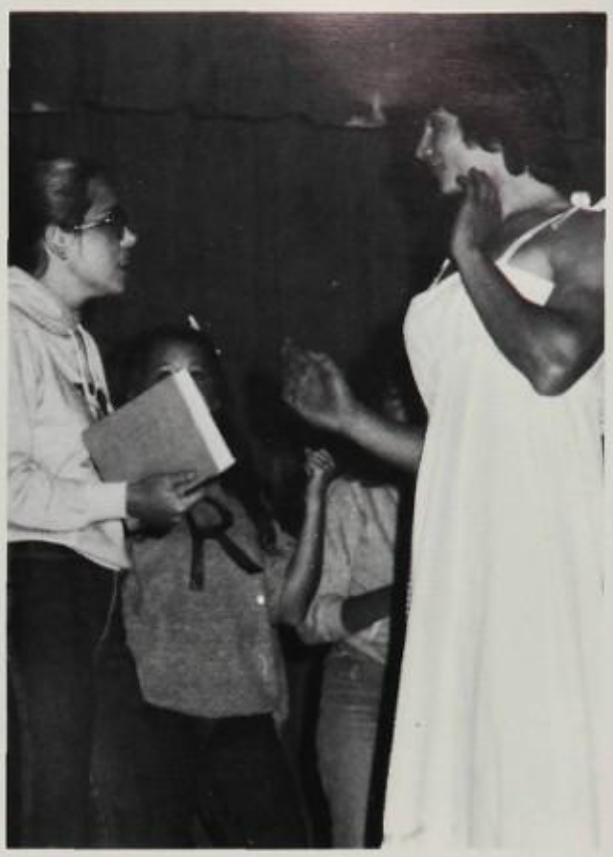
FRANKLIN HIGH
BAND
FRANKLIN TN



The theme for Homecoming 1981 was "The Year of the Rebels." Although there were no dress-up days, there was still fun and class spirit in decorating the halls, making flowers and constructing floats. Friday, the traditional parade through Franklin took place with the band, floats, and decorated cars. Afterwards, there was a pep rally and a trophy presentation by WKOS-FM 96. Skits by the Honor Society, French and Drama Clubs, Annual and Newspaper Staffs, FTA, Varsity and Wrestling cheerleaders and others added laughter to the day.

Sheri Black

You've probably seen Sheri on various television commercials for Castner Knott and DeeCee. She is a graduate of Jo-Swoan Modeling School and has been on the Castner Knott Teen Board for three years. At the Modeling Association of America International (MAAI) Convention in New York, she won a trophy in the make-up competition. She has done various runway shows, photography work for Castner Knott, Dee Cee, Dollar General Stores, The Swim Shop, and various other things for Buntin Advertising Agency. Sheri plans to attend MTSU and study marketing.

Bubba Purvis and Mike Redman

If you have ever been in Williamson County Hospital, you might have seen these two hard at work. They are Phlebotomists. A Phlebotomist's job is to draw blood from the patients. Their responsiblities are to take the blood to the lab, handle the paper work, and chart the results. They had heard about the job through Bubba's mother who is a lab technician at the hospital. They were trained and then started their job on a trial basis.

Their shifts are from after school to 11:00 p.m. They have been working for a year and have both gained a tremendous amount of medical experience. Bubba plans to major in Bio-Medical Engineering at Vanderbuilt. Mike plans to major in Engineering at Tulane.

Spotlight

Christa Williams

Studying at the Blair School of Music, Christa takes piano and theory every Tuesday after school. As a member of the FHS band, she plays the clarinet. Christa also plays the harpsicord for her church. Last year she received an honorable mention for her outstanding pinao playing in the Franklin High Talent Show. She has been playing the piano for nine years and received a "superior nine years" in piano auditions on national and state levels and also received a "superior two years" in competition judging. During the summer, she attended the Sewanee Summer Music Camp where she played in the orchestra and took private lessons in theory. Christa's future plans are to major in music.

Larry Pareigis

On December 16, 1981, Larry celebrated his one year anniversary at WIZO-AM/FM in Franklin. He is host of the weekend music and news program. He began his radio career near the end of his Sophomore year at WQQT-AM in Savannah, Georgia. Bill Moyers of CBS News and Ted Koppel of ABC News are his broadcasting idols. Larry's future goals are to become a broadcasting journalist (a political correspondent, if possible), eventually moving into production and/or executive duties at a major network.

Lisa Jezwinski

For a year now, Lisa has been modeling gowns for Jacquelynn's Bridal Shop in Franklin. She has appeared in several Bridal Shows at Opryland, The Radison Hotel, and The Maxwell House Hotel in Nashville. Last April she was on the Noon Show. Lisa has done ads for Jacquelynn's which have appeared in the Tennessean and in the February edition of "Modern Bride" magazine. Although Lisa doesn't plan further modeling career wise, she is enjoying the valuable experience the job has given her. Her future plans are to attend MTSU and major in business.

Last Will

I, Seana Beaty, being of sound mind and average body, do hereby bequeath to my sister, Kyra, my locker, 934, and the profane word carved on the front (before my time) with a supply of animal stickers to cover it up so that it will be as embarrassingly cute for her as it was for me.

We, Cindy Kinser and Angela Lynn, as graduates of the Uncle Willie School For Lab Assistants, leave our expert lusting abilities to Chris O'Rear in hope that one day he'll learn to flirt back.

I, Susan Jones, do hereby leave my many, many drawings of hands, paper sacks, and small wooden figures to any art student daring to enter Mert's door.

We, Jacky Lancio and Jill Payne, being of sly minds and rugged bodies, leave all our Army Techniques in combat such as grenade throwing, underbrush crawling, and camouflaging to any upcoming Sophomore recruits.

I, Richie Parham, being of feeble mind, never mind the body, do hereby leave my ability to put up with Mr. Simpson for three years and still smile wher. I see him to Gretchen Bright. Lord knows she's going to need it.

I, Jeffrey (Van) Allen, do hereby leave my estate to the Punks and Rock and Rollers; my awesome guitar collection to Wilson Van Falk; Franklin's Fastest Fingers to whoever can catch them; my mannequin to Mert; and my neon red pants to those who are still in the dark ages.

We, Tiffany Foy and Gloria Forkum, leave our ability to fall off the bleachers and get trampled at Pep Rallies to Leslie Burrow.

We, Mr. Eugene Wade's Shorthand class, leave to him the art of belly dancing.

I, Tammy Baugh, being of sound mind and body, leave a "class change" slip to anyone lucky enough to get Mrs. Gisler for "B" English or dumb enough to take "C."

I, Laura Best, being of deranged mind and tired body, do hereby retire myself from F.H.S. leaving behind the following:

— To Mrs. Moore I leave my leaf collection and mountain climbing boots.

— To Dr. Offutt I leave "a whole host" of joke books in hope that he can learn some decent jokes.

— To Coach Chapman I leave the memory of all my smart comments and stacks of shocking notes.

— To Mrs. Puryear and Mrs. Pace I leave all the unruly and uncooperative typewriters along with the memory of my frequent fits of hysteria in Typing II.

We, Angela Schlanker, Lori Troutt, and Jill Payne, being of sound minds and short bodies, leave black eyes to all the other munchkins who run into people's elbows.

I, Brigitte Center, being of sound mind and displaced body, will my adaptive ability to cope with rural living (Tennessee) to any transfer students who haven't realized that "it's a small world after all."

We, Tambi Brown, Missy Jamison, Gail Lewis, Cheri Moland, and Debbie Weimar, being of diminished minds due to Physics, leave our ability to titrate in public without being arrested to all future chemistry students (who wear goggles).

I, Todd Bordes, being of sound mind and body, leave absolutely nothing to anyone at any time, because if I can't take it with me, I do not want anyone else to have it either.

I, Scott Trigg, being without mind and of little body, do hereby bequeath the following: my moustache to Brad Pennington; my boots to Jackie Hudson; my Rubik's cube handbook to Mike McMahon; my "walk" to Eugene Wade; and myself to Marie May. Nobody gets my car, I want to be BURIED in it!

I, Andy McMullen, leave all my boxes of No-Doz to any future 12-C English student in Dr. Offutt's class.

We, Litia West and Michael Sweazey, in sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Kurt Swauger and Elaine Micksch our concepts of reality, unreality, and the unrealness of reality and the realness of unreality.

I, Anna Sullivan, hereby leave all the endless hours of band practice "on your own time" to all of next year's band members in hopes that they will win the Contest of Champions; and most important I leave all my love to Marco.

We, Vic Bloom, Jeff Carroll, and Mark Miller, being of feeble mind and not much body, leave to Mary Jane Wade a padded room with no air-conditioning.

And Testament

I, Albert Dale, do hereby leave my kelly green pants and skinny ties to Mike Godsey, Cobb Hammand, and Lynn Greer to keep Mert Blanken in a constant Ganja state of mind about our depressing habits.

We, Kina Miyabara and Julie Turner, do hereby leave the title of "Homestaying Queen" to any girl who does not have a date to Homecoming.

I, Amy Kirland (Pete or Repeat), leave to Cherise Blalock the hope of fulfilling Mrs. Moore's foreshadowing of our lives: Going to Waco, Texas, marrying some Baylor men, buying homes close to each other so we can sip coffee every morning and reminisce about Mother Moore's Accounting class (especially about the cold, brutal death of the "spider").

I, Lee Dean, leave my ability of walking through the halls in a blissful daze without knowing where I am to Sherrie Carpenter and Jill E. Bailey.

I, Dana Crane, do hereby leave my ability to have too much to do and not enough time to do it all to Erik Stewart; and my total pandemonium with F=ma cos Θ and CWT=CCWT to any fool who wants to try to figure these things out.

I, Jamey Green, do hereby leave Franklin High in hope that in the event of my demise, that my body will be cremated and the ashes thereof strewn along the front lawn, in the halls and rooms, and in the parking lot. In this, the teachers at F.H.S. will know that I am always there on the lookout for the oppression and torture of poor defenseless students.

We, Janine Allen, Henri Roberts, and Françoise Darby, leave our F.P.S., F.D.S., and our animal noises "à la française" to Mrs. Williams and next year's Deuxième Année.

I, Bruce Johnson, being of almost sound mind and body, leave my philosophy of responsibility to Mr. Parker so that he may correct all of the 1,000 word themes he collects.

We, John Hines and Ronn Huff, leave our dirty socks and broken tennis raquets to David Burt; and the ability to put up with Coach Chapman to his wife!

I, Barry Leverette, leave the underclassmen the ability to lean back into Mr. Hankins right hand swing.

I, Amy Reighley, leave the parts of my wrecked car to Coach Chapman so that he can teach his students how not to drive!

I, Chip Horton, being of somewhat sound mind, do hereby leave the following to be distributed as stated below:

Teachers:

— To Mrs. Meek I leave my cliffnotes from all my outside reading books and the accompanying failing test papers.

— To Coach Cartwright I leave my Ziggie poster and fan club ticket to which I am sure he may put to good use.

— To Coach Clark I leave my right hand which he has caused much pain and suffering from writing off 500 times every time I arrive late.

— To Coach Chapman I leave a new gear shift lever for the one I broke in the simulator, while speed shifting.

— To Mr. Wade I leave my pair of worn out Levis because he has not one old set of clothes in his house.

— To Mrs. Moore I leave my mouth so she can jap slap it when she gets angry. With this I hope she remembers all of the times she wanted to do that to me for talking so much.

Attendance:

— To Mr. Parker I leave my knife, which he obviously likes, because he has taken it from me so many times.

— To Mr. Hankins I leave my backside to practice on. He burned it enough in my three years here that I felt like his practice slab.

— Last but not least, I leave to Mr. Pike my full head of hair. May he wear it in good health during the winter to keep his head warm.

These things I do bequeath in gratitude for their loyalty and generosity toward me.

Being of relatively sound mind and body, we, Sandra (Spif) Spivey, and Christine (D.B.) Stallard, do leave our unfailing ability to cause trouble and get away with murder to Dawn Dodd, and Terri (Gary carried Terri) McGee.

A Great Season

This season was the first winning one for a Franklin High football team since the season of 1969. Winning is usually not a word to be associated with football at Franklin, but this year it was. The 1981 team was a well balanced one with an explosive offense and a very strong defense. The offense, led by senior quarterback Wayne Armstrong, had an excellent passing game balanced by a powerful runn ing attack, with five runners with over 300 yards each for the season and two of them with over 800 yards for the season. On the other hand, a strong defense held the opposition to an average of only ten points per game.

Even though Coach Clark had been critical of the defense, it came on to prove itself in the first game as Franklin routed cross-county rival Page 35-0. The first district game (9AAA) was against Hendersonville. Franklin was trailing 21-20 with 2:50 left in the game when Mike Gilley threw a 27-yard halfback pass to the wide open Greg Reynolds for a game-winning touchdown. The defense held on and Frankin won 26-21. David Armstrong completed 6 of 7 passes for 169 yards in the hard-fought battle. In the next game the defense really came to play with Reggie Pope moving to linebacker as they took on Columbia. Fullback Phil Erikson led the offense with 91 yards. The second district win came over Springfield, 14-12, in a hard-hitting game that put Franklin in the driver's seat of the district standings. Franklin came back from an 8-0 halftime score to beat Dickson County 15-8. The Smyrna Bulldogs were no contest for the "Rolling Rebels." The Rebels shut them out 28-0 in the Homecoming contest leaving Franklin out front in the district standings. Franklin extended their winning streak to seven games in as many starts as they defeated Lawrenceburg 28-21 in an emotional struggle. Franklin's season was going as smooth as a tranquil lake on a calm summer's eve until the Gallitin "Green Wave" broke the dam with a 23-0 defeat of the previously unbeaten Rebels. A determined McGavock team came back with a fourth quarter rally to win 21-20. Franklin had to win their final game against district foe Mt. Juliet to make it to the State playoffs. They lost (13-6).

Even with this disheartening finish, Franklin had a GREAT season, the best since 1969 (12 years) and was invited to a post-season bowl game. They were defeated 7-0 by Lincoln County but were plagued by injuries. The three leading rushers McLemore, Gilley, and Erikson were all injured; and as if that wasn't enough, the team leader, quarterback Wayne Armstrong, was also injured and did not see action.

Coach Clark with assistants Laxson, Cartwright, Carothers, and Laverty, have built a powerhouse at Franklin. The leading rusher was Randy McLemore who had 862 yards on the season, Mike Gilley had 803 yards, Phil Erikson had 369 yards. The wingbacks David Argo and Clay Whitehurst both had over 300 yards for the season. Wayne Armstrong, voted All-State quarterback, was 61 of 99 for 1059 yards, and younger brother David was 17 of 27 for 401 yards. All of these feats were accomplished behind a powerful offensive line. Reggie Pope led the defense with 91 tackles and 56 hits followed by Sean Fisher with 86 tackles and 61 hits.

Many things could be said for the resurgent Franklin High School Rebels, but the three things that come to mind as one surveys the past season are: Congratulations on a tremendous season past; keep up the good work; and good luck next year and through the remaining building days of a Franklin High football dynasty!

GIRLS'

The Rebelletes played very well this season producing many exciting finishes. Several games came down to the buzzer such as the Hendersonville game in which Karen Booker hit a last-second "turn around jumper" to win the game by one point. The overall scoring was led by Karen Booker and Karen Reynolds with strong contributions by seniors Litia West, Debbie Brown, and Kim Burr and sophomores Shannon Parker, Jennifer Roberts, and Melissa Thompson. Coach Gamble deserves credit for all the time he spent with the team. F.H.S. predicts that this fine young team will be district champions this time next year.

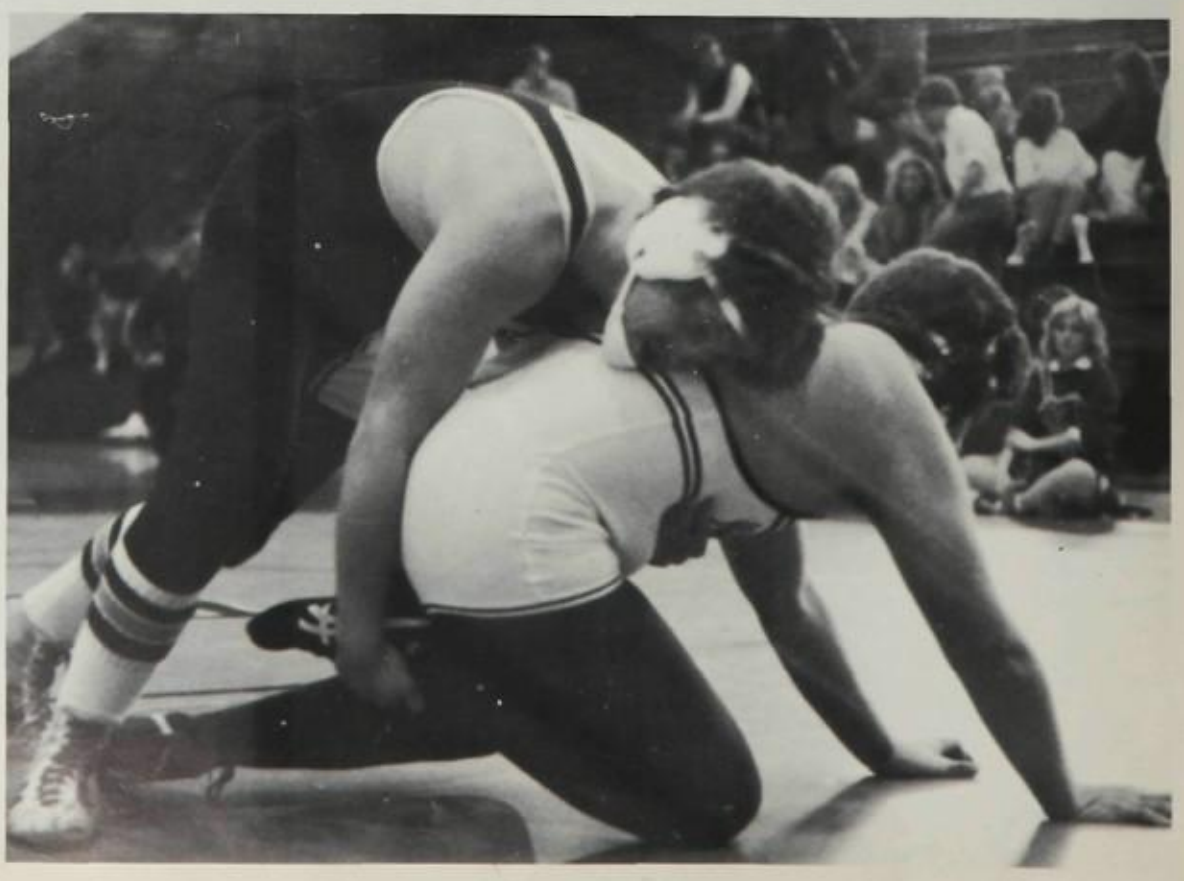
WRESTLING



Sandra,
Giggling Sandra, it's been fun and hopefully we all learned something. You have a very nice personality (loud at times) but very nice. I have enjoyed having you in class.
Good luck,
Jeff Jordan

This year's wrestling team coached by Jeff Jordan and John Ingram, has shown much improvement over last year's team. Their 10-8 record shows the maturity of the upperclassman wrestlers as well as a fine performance from our sophomores. This was also seen in their district matches which produced several victories. Congratulations on a fine year.

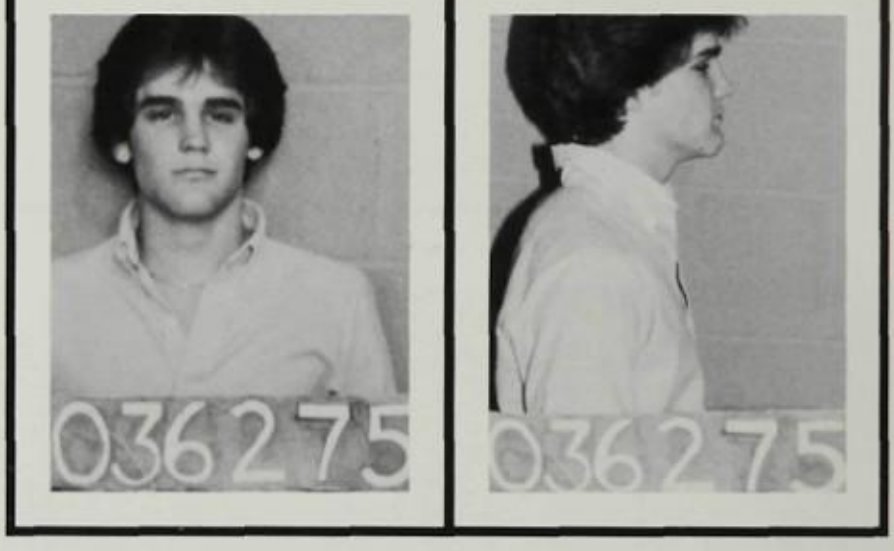
BRENTWOOD STUDENT FOUND GUILTY

Jury takes no time in making decision.

FRANKLIN, Dec. 10 — "On Saturday evening several months ago, a janitor-guard reported a break-in at the Brentwood High School to police. Police arriving at the scene learned that the janitor had surprised several youths in the midst of a series of destructive actions in the school. The janitor attempted to stop the vandals but was struck from behind, knocked momentarily unconscious, came to, but was not able to give a positive identification of the culprits.

"A police investigation followed and led immediately to the home of the accused and to a garage in the nearby neighborhood. A successful search followed in which police discovered and seized numerous items that had been stolen from the high school.

"The accused was arraigned, pleaded not guilty to the charges, and was granted a trial by jury."



The honorable Judge Jim Peterson presided over the two-day trial. Buck Matheny was defended by Defense attorney Jay Yokley with assistant attorneys Scott Coile and Cindy O'Connor. Attorneys for the State were Marcia Allen, Michael Self and Laura Edwards. Ms. Allen being Head Attorney.

Both sides presented well organized cases.

Judge Jim Peterson

To left: Prosecuting attorneys Marcia Allen, Mike Self, and Laura Edwards presented a strong enough case to find Buck Matheny guilty. Defense attorneys were Jay Yokley, Scott Coile, an Cindy O'Connor.

Matheny sworn in by court clerk Albert Dale.

Cindy Billingsly was courtroom artist.

How did you see "Raiders of the Lost Ark" if it hadn't been released?

Witnesses during the trial included: Max Alexander, Matheny's friend; Hally Gremillion, Matheny's girlfriend; Ms. Janice Terry, a neighbor; Robert Bissinger, Matheny's employer; Sergeant Greg Schlanker, Ms. Janet Qualls, Matheny's teacher; Mr. Rodney German, the school's janitor-guard; and Officer Andy McMullen.

In Memoriam

The 1981-82 Rebel is in memory of these five people who have lost their lives in the course of the past year. The deaths of these people have touched the lives of many of their friends and family. This annual is dedicated to each one of them.

Debi Jeroutek

A scholarship was established at Harpeth National Bank in June, 1981 by Debi's parents, their business associates, friends, and teachers.

The scholarship is known as the "Franklin High School Debi Jeroutek Memorial Scholarship Fund" and will be awarded to one of Debi's classmates who will be in the FHS graduating class of 1982. It will be presented at the graduation ceremony.

Debi was on the cross country team at FHS. She was also a member of the Spanish Club. Debi swam for the Nashville Aquatic Club Swim Team. She was an employee at McDonald's in Franklin. She was also active in the Ashwood Church of Christ youth group. One of her hobbies was writing poetry. She wrote this poem in 1981.

"BE"

Harden not thy heart when life seems so ruined . . .

Care with the heart which God made so big . . .

Live to do good deeds with thy unselfish emotion . . .

Touch people's hearts with sweet love and kind devotion.

Jennifer McGee

Jennifer McGee was a junior at Franklin this year. She enjoyed writing poetry and had won several contests for her writing. This is a poem that Jennifer wrote.

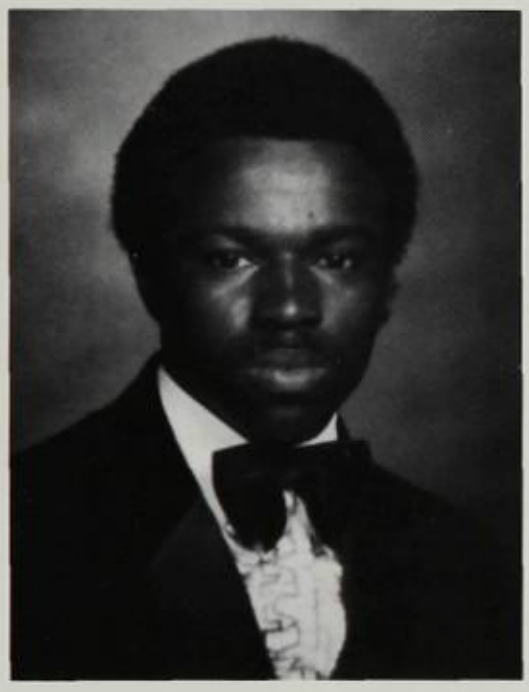
"Nothing is Forever"

True love will last forever,
Or so the story goes,
I wish that it were true,
But that's not what the record shows
I've heard it said that innocence
Can last through all your years,
I wish I could believe that,
But that's not how it appears.
Your love can change and grow
So small, and it may finally die,
And innocence is washed away
By the many tears you cry.
Your love can be replaced by hate,
Or simply caring not,
And innocence is bitterness
When the battles have been fought.
So if you ever hear them say
Some things you cannot sever,
You'll know it isn't true, my friend,
For nothing is forever.

Jennifer McGee

Connie Dugger

Connie Dugger would have been a junior this year at Franklin. She played the flute in the Franklin Junior High School Band. She grew up in Franklin and will be missed by many people.



Kimbro McCullough

Kimbro McCullough would have been a senior at Franklin this year. He worked at the Kentucky Fried Chicken in Franklin and also did yard work for some neighbors. Kimbro was a member of the Providence Church of Franklin and was "highly respected" by his friends and neighbors.

Sharon Radley

Sharon Radley would have been a senior at Franklin High School this year. She was an employee of Big K in Franklin. She was an active member of Shorter Chapel AME Church of Franklin where she participated in her church choir and was secretary of her Sunday School class. Sandra - Well, we made it through our first year and I think we're still alive. We should've had some classes together but I guess it's lucky for the teachers that we didn't! You don't know how great it makes me feel when I tell somebody you're my best friend. Everybody knows you and I hear so many things about you all the time. (nothing new, cuz I knew them all anyway.) This year really has been too much fun. No one else I know bombards my locker with paper streamers and balloons on my birthday and puts a poster up! Speaking of lockers, next year we have to share one. okay - here goes our sophomore year in one paragraph:

You Silly Billy! (I never did know how that started) Our first day: Where is my homeroom? (I'm lost!) When do we get lockers? (I'm lost!) Where is room # 31? (I'm lost!) Who is in your class? I'm (still lost!) Did you see that guy? (I'm even more lost!) When do we eat lunch? (I hate being lost!) Whew! What a day! (My bus is lost!) Somebody help me! (Now I know I've lost my mind!) cute, very cute (At least we weren't like that every day!)

Even though I was (and still am - in the head) lost for a while, you've helped me through so much this year. You are the sister I never had. I always know I can come talk to you and you'll help me in any way you can. In my future, I know I'll need someone to lean on and to care so you can expect a call eighty times a day. no, just kidding. About next year and school: if we both go to B'wood - wonderful. If we go to different schools - always know you're the best friend I've ever had and distance makes no difference for true friends. You know that

Hey, well I'm glad we've been friends for another year. Even though we were the stupid sophomores it's been fun, especially in band & everything. I just want you to know I'm upset with you for quitting rifle, cause you're so good. Oh well, I'll see ya this summer at church + stuff. I hope next year we can have some classes besides band + homeroom together.

(Silly Billy Goofball)
